

CIVIL WAR ENCAMPMENT AND GRANDE BALL

Hosted By Crabtree's Independent Rifles

The fourth annual Civil War Encampment will be held at the 42nd Annual Reynoldsburg Tomato Festival from Friday, September 7 through Sunday, September 9, 2007 with re-enactments on Saturday, September 8 and Sunday, September 9, 2007 at Civic Park on Daugherty Drive in Reynoldsburg, Ohio. Festival attendees are encouraged to visit the encampment to view and handle the implements and armaments from the Civil War Era.

A Grande Ball will be held in conjunction with the re-enactment on Saturday, September 8, 2007. The public is encouraged to participate in the Grand Ball along with the officers and soldiers accompanied by their fair ladies from the encampment. Those who wish to participate in the Grande Ball are encouraged to arrive in period costume. However, anyone who wants to participate will learn how to dance to the popular tunes and dance steps from the 1860's. For more information contact Bob Mergel at 614-863-3134.

ENCAMPMENT AND GRANDE BALL TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

Friday, September 7, 2007

5:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. – Move in and set up Encampment.
Camp is open to public.

Saturday, September 8, 2007

11:00 a.m. – 10:00 pm - Camp is open to public.

12:30 p.m. - First Battle

3:00 p.m. - Ladies Tea and Fashion Show

4:30 p.m. - Second Battle

6:00 pm – Grande Ball

9:30 pm – Night firing of artillery &
Candlelight Tour of the Encampment.

Sunday, September 9, 2007

11:00 am - 4:00 p.m. - Encampment is open to public.

2:00 pm - Battle